"The Man on the Box" comes to the Howell theater next Monday night, November 7th, fully equipped for the road with the original New York city production. "Mr. Bert Leigh in the leading titular role has been surrounded with the accessories that helped make Mr. Henry E. Dixey famous in this play. The supporting cast is of unusual excellence for a road production, and a first-class performance is looked forward to by the theater-going public of Palatka.

The Halloween party given at the home of Miss Clyde Estes, on Monday night, was a very pleasant social event. About twenty young people attired in sheets, pillowcases and masks, were present, and games appropriate to the season were indulged in. Refreshments were served, and at a late hour the phantom guests made their departure, all pleased with the success of the affair, and voting Miss Estes many thanks for her generous entertainment.

Thomas C. Buddington of New Smyrna, independent candidate for congress from this district, was in the city this week. When seen Mr. Buddington didn't appear to be at all winded from his race, though he says he's been running several weeks. Mr. Buddington is a recent importation from Massachusetts, in which state he had the distinction of running for office once before, and the office of lieutenant governor on the popular ticket. Mr. Buddington says he is "agin' Mr. Flagler," that his platform "Deeper water in New Smyrna Inlet," that he expects the republican vote, and that when the election is over he will be permitted to retire to the seclusion of his farm.

The program consisted of music by piano and flute, Halloween games of all descriptions, and refreshments. The costumes were all good and afforded much amusement. The first real entertainment of the season will be given by the C. E. and V. I. A. together about December 2d. Particulars later.

Death of Mrs. Douglass.

Mrs. M. A. Douglass, a resident of this city since 1885, died at her home on Fifth street last Sunday evening. The cause of death was heart failure. Mrs. Douglass was a faithful member of the Baptist church and a devoted christian mother. She is survived by six children, three sons and three daughters, viz: E. B. Douglass of Washington, D. C.; Geo. and W. I. Douglass, Mrs. H. L. Miller and Mrs. H. R. Gordon of this city, and Mrs. W. R. Ritter of Jacksonville. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday morning, Rev. P. Q. Cason of the Baptist church officiating. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

Presbyterian Church.

Services in this church for the week will be as follows:

School for Bible study Sunday morning at 9:45, H. M. de Montmolin, superintendent.

Morning worship, with sermon, at 11 o'clock.

Evening services including praise, prayer and sermon, at 7:30.

Midweek meeting for prayer and study of the Holy Scriptures, Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Last Sunday after the morning services the congregation took an advanced step in the election of two additional elders and three deacons. The old board of five trustees was re-elected to succeed themselves. The outlook for this church is encouraging.
